Far Reach Ranch Set Herd Sale On May 28

Changes in the pasture, management and general operative set-up of Edwin B. Mead's well-known Far Reach Ranch purebred Shorthorn herd has brought about the immediate necessity of reducing his herd from 125 to approximately 65 brood cows. He has arranged for a quickly planned auction to be held at the ranch near Mt. Dora, Saturday May 28.

"This will be a herd-division sale made up entirely of bred females and cows," states Mead, "we know that for such a sale to be a success we must be fair and really divide the herd in half with the public in terms of quality, age and service to our herd sires. For example, in this reduction sale are 21 bred to or who have calves at foot by the International grand champion Viking 4th, the bull we purchased for $10,000. In all there will be twenty-five calves sold at foot with their dams. There are 55 bred females in this sale . . . no bulls. Forty three of these are four years old or younger, the rest not much older."

"This is a quickly planned sale and these cattle will just be in average breeding condition. It should give Florida buyers a real opportunity to buy Viking blood at prices to fit the pocketbook. If we put these good females with calves at foot or well along in calf in the hands of good Florida cattlemen, we will do a lot of good for both Far Reach and the Shorthorn breed in Florida.

EDWARD G. BARRY, Little Rock, Ark., third vice president of Lions International, who will be keynote speaker at the Florida Lions annual convention at St. Petersburg May 15-17. Headquarters are at the Soreno Hotel, Barry, commercial sales manager for the Arkansas Power and Light Company, is distinguished in Lincolnton for his interest in work for the blind.

HI SCHOOL NEWS

By FRANCES SLOAN
New Equipment Purchase
The Student Council of Belle Glade High School, has made it possible for the Physical Education Classes to have an archery set. The Council gave Miss Cynthia Slater, girls' physical education teacher, seventy-five dollars, and she used $15.00 more from a general fund, to purchase the set from Sporting Goods Store in West Palm Beach. The store allowed them one-third off the set.

Everyone who takes this will be an asset to the physical education classes. There are ten archery sets each of which include arm guards, finger tabs, arrows and bows and one large target.

Many thanks from the Student Council for this gesture.

Cadets Take Trip
Six Civil Air Patrol Cadets, the local Glades Squadron, visited the Palm Beach International Airport, Sunday, May 8. Cadets participating in the trip were: Lieutenant Leo James, Sergeants Frances Sloan, Clarence Thompson, and Jeanne Willette, and Privates Joe Hight and Donnie Chaney. The Cadets received their Commanding Officer's approval, and were taken by the Cadet Commanding Officer, before leaving.

Upon arriving at the airport, the group was subordinated to the Base Operations office, and were introduced to Chaplain Christy, who showed them around the office and the records that they keep of the departing and incoming aircraft. The cadets were also shown around the weather room, and had demonstrated to them several radar machines, which detect bad weather and cloud formations.

Later, 1st Lt. Fortune, who was the Officer of the Day, took them on a tour of the base and around the flight line. The Cadets were very fortunate by getting into a B-50, since their trip had not been previously arranged. However, they were taken through the plane, which was previously used for combat, but is now used for making photographic maps.

The party was shown the bomb-bay, and other compartments of the plane; where each crew member sits and works; and the crash positions, which are positions each member occupies in case of a crash landing. Especially interesting was the bombardier's position, in the extreme part of the nose.

The Cadets feel that they learned very much from this trip.

Achievement Day
The annual Achievement Day for the local girls 4-H Club, was held last Thursday, May 5, in the Home Economics room. The girls work on their projects at home, throughout the school year, and they exhibit them at this time. Mrs. David Pierce, assistant County Home Demonstration agent, presented the ribbons. Girls winning ribbons for their exhibits were Dorothy Irvin and Bonnie Williams.

Student Council Convention
A Junior High School Student Council Convention was held last weekend in Miami Beach. Attending from Belle Glade were: Dickie Dupere, John Lee, Nancy Rich, Judith Farmer, and Billy Carlson, substituting for Terry Tagger. This group was chaperoned by Miss Marian Natarian and Coach Charles Godwin. They stayed at the Montefrey Hotel. Upon arrival, Friday night, they attended a "get-acquainted" dance, held at the Tenth Street Auditorium.

The Nautilus High School Dance Band provided the music. The convention meetings were held on Saturday morning and afternoon, at the Nautilus High School. After the last meeting, the Belle Glade group attended a movie, "The Prodigal," at the Sheridan Theatre.

Col. Hartwell Speaks Before Rotary Club

Rotarians, at their regular weekly meeting last Friday, heard Lt. Col. Omer Hartwell, commander of the 2nd Battalion, 21st Regiment of the Florida National Guard, speak on the National Guard in Belle Glade.

Company E, the Glades unit stationed at Belle Glade, is one of the companies composing the 2nd Battalion which Col. Hartwell commands.

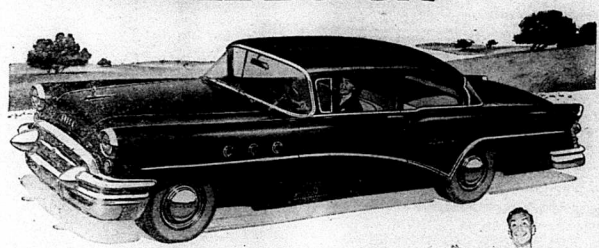

Col. Hartwell spoke on the history of our local unit giving some interesting background to his tale. He spoke of the origin of the National Guard in the United States and of the role it has played in all National emergencies that our country has faced. He also spoke of the meaning of the National Guard to our young men in the present.

Men between the ages of 17 and 35 are eligible to belong to the Guard. Men who are between the ages of 17 and 18, when they join the Guard, are deferred from selective service as long as they maintain an active status in the Guard. Men in the Guard receive pay for the once-a-week drills which they attend. They are paid on the basis of Regular Army pay, receiving one full day's pay in whatever pay grade the man is. Men who decide to go into the regular service may carry any stripes they have earned in the Guard with them.

Col. Hartwell told Rotarians of the proposed installation of a Glades army here in Belle Glade. He stated that Belle Glade was very high on the priority list in the state's building program.

But pure and simple, it's all the automobile you get for your money that's winning so many new owners to Buick.

It's the extra pride you feel, the extra room you enjoy, the extra comfort you get, the extra safety you sense—from Buick styling, Buick size, Buick ride-engineering, Buick solidity of structure.

Sister Rose Immaculate and Sister Judith Mary, Dominican

One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see. (John 9:25).

Four times in my life I have had terrible pains in my legs. Each time one of these attacks has come while I was at some very controversial meeting. At such times I have been given pills, baths, exercises, and all but had my legs cut off. These treatments, however, seemed to give me very little benefit.

Finally, a friend suggested I spend a quiet hour daily at home or alone in some church, and read I Corinthians, Chapter 13, over and over, and in prayerful meditation. I further learned a few of Jesus' advices to the businessmen of His day. Believe it or not, something happened which resulted in a settlement of my troubles. At any rate, my aches left me.

I am glad to give this testimony now as I am just recovering from one of these attacks. Being a layman, I am not prepared to argue the matter with any reader. I can only say what the blind man to whom Jesus gave sight said, "One thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see."

PRAYER
Our Father, we thank Thee for the help we have experienced as the direct result of drawing near to Thee from time to time, through Christ Jesus by the testimony of our lips. Help us to continue to trust Thee and to keep faith sweet and strong; through Christ Our Lord. — Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY
To come to Christ is to know the light of life.

Community Methodist Loyalty Dinners Set For May 17 and 18

The Church Loyalty Dinners for the entire membership of the Community Methodist Church will be served on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, May 17 and 18. Twenty-two couples have been asked to invite members of the church to sit at the table with them as their guests. The members of the WSCS are in charge of serving the meals. The program for the evening will consist of the motion picture "The Hidden Heart" and also, a picture in technique of the activities of the Community Methodist Church taken by Bill Graber during the past year. The financial program for the church will be presented. The evening will afford everyone an opportunity for warm, Christian fellowship with their fellow church members.

Community Methodist Church continues with excellent attendance at worship services. There were 253 people in attendance at the morning service Sunday. The evening service is one of the most attractive services conducted. The lights in the sanctuary are on retreat and the service begins each evening with the stately dimly lighted and soft organ music.

One of the special features of the evening service is the Altar Prayer service, conducted immediately after the sermon at which time the pastor invites the congregation to kneel at the altar for prayer. During the altar service, with the lights dimmed and the beautiful rose window lighted and soft organ music being played, the lovely new sanctuary is, indeed, a place where the presence of God is felt.

Remember The Sabbath Day To Keep It Holy

"You can wash pots and pans to the glory of God," says Dr. Roy McClain in his talk to Baptist Hour radio listeners Sunday. "But," he says, "there is no substitute for formal worship. The Sabbath makes far more sense than man is inclined to admit. The day to be set aside is God's thermostat that keeps the body from burning out and times our days for refueling the soul."

Dr. McClain will be heard on station WSWN at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

To Late To Classify

By Russell Kay

Well, it looks like the lobby boys have been doing a pretty good job so far and since the lobbies are as much a part of the legislative session as the legislature itself, we have to take our hats off to the gum-shoe boys who know their way 'round and understand the fine art of cart-pulling, huddling, posturing and all the rest that goes with being an able lobbyist.

The only lobby the average taxpayer has is the legislature itself, but the professional lobbyists always seem to have the situation well in hand. While for them at the opening of the session it is interesting to note that at times fights they manage to protect their clients exceptionally well even on such legislation as milk, small loans, racing and many other subjects.

It never looked like the dairy interests that it did just before the session opened. A lot of folks expected to see the State Milk Commission abolished forthwith, or at least see its price fixing authority taken away.

A number of legislators ran on a platform of opposition to the Milk Commission and they actually promised constituents during their campaigns that the first thing they would do would be to knock the Milk Commission for a grand old-fashioned loop.

Well, the session is half over and it looks like the Milk Commission is sitting pretty. Not that it didn't have plenty of opposition, for it did, but the smooth operation of the milk lobby saved the day and it is apparent that the Milk Commission will continue to operate and to fix prices.

The small loan lobby proved equally capable in blocking any legislation that would hinder or handicap the small loan people. Ordinarily any attempt in this direction is defeated in committee and it is seldom that a small loan bill ever reaches the floor.

It did this session but got so backlashed with amendments that it was impossible to get it on the floor. The rate on small loans in Florida is presently high, 42 percent, and the public is unanimous in the feeling that the rate should be reduced. Here again legislators pledged to do something about it but found that they were locked before they started.

Governor Collins presented a number of worthwhile constructive suggestions and strongly urged legislative action that met widespread approval of most citizens. But a Governor can only suggest, and it is up to the action of legislators as to what happens.

There are more ways to kill a bill than there are to kill a man, and an experienced lobbyist knows all of them, and take it from me they put their knowledge to good use. It takes a good man to steer legislation to a successful conclusion and many a legislator who goes to Tallahassee with the best of intentions has to return home with a tale to tell to his constituents.

Now comes the time to get the Milk Commission with full price fixing powers or why didn't they improve the taxes on the "dog track" people.

The Governor expressed the belief that no new taxes would be necessary; however, the boys have been spending money at a mighty fast clip and it is appropriate that the amount to much if it is no provision made for the money to back them up. It appears that the appropriations committee has a man-sized job on its hands and it is difficult to see at this writing how they can make both ends meet without finding several new sources of revenue.

There is not too much time left if we are going to conclude the session in the normal 60-day period, but the boys have been making pretty good progress so far and maybe they will do it.

Personally, I wouldn't be a bit surprised to see it go longer. President Davis of the Senate and Speaker Davis of the House both have stated that they think we can finish in the 60-day period, but anything can happen and there is a big job ahead. In the meantime I tip my hat again to the lobby boys—they are doing a bang-up job.

Gardener's Corner

By MRS. R. Y. CREECH

ROSES

A great many people have the mistaken idea that roses do not do well in South Florida. It is true, there are some varieties that are not well adapted to our part of the country, but that need not bother us, for there are more than enough that are, so that we may have lovely rose gardens and hedges.

Varieties

In order to have a lovely rose garden, with abundant blooms for cutting, it is advisable to plant varieties that are well adapted to our climate and soil. The roses that are grown in Texas are climatically conditioned to Florida. Almost all the varieties that we have here except the tight - petaled varieties. These do not do well here because of the fluctuation in temperature, and our heavy dew. Because of this we almost never get a perfect rose from this type. My favorite varieties, and the ones I have had the most success growing, are Peace, Miranda, Hoover, Better Times, Etoile de Hollande, Red and Pink Radiance, Dainty Bess and Forty-Niner. Although there are many, many others, including the polyanthas and the floribunda.

Preparation of Soil

My rose beds are prepared several weeks before the arrival of my new bushes. The bed is prepared with adding a generous amount of sand and cow-manure, then (and this is most important) thoroughly turned several times, say once a week, before planting the roses. This is to insure a light, friable soil for the new plants. The sand is added to help moisture in our dry mud, and so aid in drainage during our rainy season. This is seemingly a contradiction, but it works.

Planting

Proper planting is, of course, most important. Planting distances will depend almost entirely upon the type of rose. Vines should be planted from 18 inches to two feet apart. Before planting, all injured or broken stems should be pruned away; a clean, slant cut being made. Any long, shaggy roots may be trimmed back sufficiently so that they will not have to be twisted or bent when the plant is set. A hole of ample size should be dug for each plant. If the loose soil is mounded slightly in the bottom of the hole one will be able to place the roots in a natural position, and eliminate air pockets near the roots. It is best to fill the hole, first, with water, before planting.

This enables the water to soak down into the soil beneath the roots, thereby insuring dampness for the new roots.

The depth is important. The plant should be placed so that the crown, which is the union between the root stock and the stem, is 1 1/2 to two inches below the surface of the soil. Pack the soil firmly around the roots so when the hole is filled, it may be tamped down firmly. Many failures are caused by loose, careless planting. Water the bed thoroughly and keep moist until the plants are well established.

Dusting And Spraying

My roses are dusted lightly every seven days with a good insecticide, and every 90 days they are sprayed with Volck. This practice keeps the bushes free of insects and in a healthy condition.

Pruning

If you are trying for one or more large exhibition quality blooms, it will be necessary to prune vigorously. If, however, you are willing to sacrifice quality for quantity, having plenty of flowers to look at and still leave some on the bush to beautify your yard, a much lighter pruning is advisable. We are actually pruning throughout the cutting season.

Mulching

There are several opinions on when and how to mulch the rose bed. My roses are mulched only during the hot months, and then lightly. This is to prevent the hot sun from baking and drying out the little feeder roots and to keep the soil moist. Boats, or dried grass clippings, make excellent mulching. The grass clippings should be dried out before using, and they must be replenished often. The be-gas will last almost a year.

Conditioning

Roses should be gathered either early in the morning, while the dew is still on them, or late in the afternoon. Cut the stems with a sharp knife to ensure a smooth, uncrushed surface. Always recut stems, removing about one-half inch of base just before placing in water; even a few minutes exposure to air can close the ends. The cut should be diagonal, so that the open stem will not rest entirely on the bottom of the vase. Experts say cut flowers should be placed in hot water, not cold, after cutting. Use water about 100 degrees F., because liquids become thinner when heated, moving up the stem more rapidly. Since water gets into the stem thru the cut portion, depth of water into which stems are placed is not important. Remove leaves below water surface and do not crowd the container. Let your cut flowers set for two or three hours before arranging. If they are arranged as soon as cut, they will not last nearly so long.

Selecting Exhibition Flowers

In selection of roses for exhibiting in flower shows, it is well to remember that judging is based on a comparison of the approach to perfection of the individual variety. The best rose should be preferably one of exhibition quality. When this is not possible, a bloom nearly approaching that standard can be selected. Specimen blooms of tea, hybrid tea, hybrid perpetual, and other exhibition types, and other exhibition types, should be selected for their perfect phase of its possible beauty.

A good rose is one which has form, size, brightness of color, substance, and good foliage and at the time of judging, is in the most perfect phase of its possible beauty.

the bloom; evidence of very recent disbudding will be penalized at half the score for stems. In all other cases, polyanthas, floribundas, climbers, etc., naturally shown without disbudding, at the time of judging, an exhibition rose should be in the most perfect phase of its possible beauty.

A good rose is one which has form, size, brightness of color, substance, and good foliage and at the time of judging, is in the most perfect phase of its possible beauty.

New L.C.F. (Low Cab Forward) Chevrolet Task-Force Trucks

Meet the successor to the C.O.E.

Powered by the most modern V8 in any truck... Chevrolet's new Taskmaster V8 engine!

Save the driver! Also, the low L.C.F. is handsomer by far than any C.O.E. ever built!

Inside, the L.C.F.'s new Flight-Ride cab has a level floor with plenty of "stretch-out" leg room and offers new driver comfort. The driver has a commanding view of the road—both far ahead and close up front—through the big, broad panoramic windshield.

Quicker, simpler maintenance is another big advantage offered by the new L.C.F. Everything's easier to reach in the roomy engine compartment.

In an L.C.F. you still get the easy maneuverability of a C.O.E., plus—new frames, new suspension, a whole truck-load of modern features!

Shortest Stroke V8 of All The new Taskmaster V8—the most modern V8 any truck can buy—powers the new L.C.F.1 With a 12-volt electrical system for faster starting!

Year after year, America's best selling truck! CHEVROLET

DON'T BUY ANY V8 UNTIL YOU'VE TRIED CHEVROLET'S RECORD-SMASHING "TURBO-FIRE V8"!

Most Modern in Design - Lowest in Price
